

BEN LOMOND QUAKER CENTER

Quaker Service and Art Camp

with Julian Garrett, Erin Marshall, Kathy Runyan and Nate Secrest

June 22 – June 29, 2019

We welcome kids entering 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, or 9th grades for Quaker Service and Art Camp!

Quaker Service and Art Camp offers young people a taste of life in the remarkable redwoods of the Santa Cruz mountains. Campers will join camp staff and seasoned Friends for a week endeavoring to live out some of the core values of Quakerism. This year, we will focus even more attention on what living in community requires and what we can each do to contribute to creating a beloved community.

Each morning, multi-generational crews will gather to work on service projects at Quaker Center, or travel to Santa Cruz to work at the Homeless Garden, or with Grey Bears bagging food for those in need. In addition to community service, the exploration of Quaker practices will take place throughout the day in town meetings, experiential learning, kitchen and cleaning crews, games and music.

Campers will also enjoy games, hiking around Quaker Center, and swimming, a variety of fun community building activities, singing, campfires, as well as whichever art course they choose to take for the week.

The choices for an art course will include sculpting with Kindred Gottleib, learning to play ukulele with Jeff Richman (Jeff will bring plenty of ukuleles to loan to campers who don't have their own), and one or two other opportunities for creative art that are still in the works.

Come spend time with old friends, make new friends, and have a great time with the camp staff.

REGISTRATION IS SCHEDULED TO CLOSE ON JUNE 1st.

COST is on a sliding scale from $420 to $560. A 10% discount is available for campers who bring a new friend or a sibling. Additional scholarship funds are available. Quaker Center Annual Passes can be used for one camper from each meeting. No one will be refused access to our camp because of lack of funding.
