January 24-26
Young and Old for Climate Justice: A Dialog
Young people strike, demand divestment, urge a Green New Deal, and older people act, too. Come to affirm strengths, differences, and build unity. Reduced fees for Friends 35 and under.
George Lakey

February 21-23
How Then Shall I Live?
Through the use of silence, meditation, discussion, poetry and nature, this retreat offers participants opportunities to discern their way forward in this time of change.
Lucretia Humphrey

March 24-29
Practices for Supporting Faithfulness
We'll try practices to help each other pay attention to the divine presence within, explore what blocks our whole-hearted response, and offer support for following the leadings of the Spirit. We'll also form Faithfulness Groups.
Marcelle Martin

April 17-19
Choosing Peace: Nurturing Ourselves as Peacebuilders in a Divided World
We will explore stories of nonviolent transformation from around the world, reflect and reconnect with our internal sources of motivation, and share ways we can choose peace in our lives.
Bridget Moix

May 29-31
Listening to Nature's Wisdom on Equity, Inclusion, and Letting Go
Let’s look to nature’s wisdom for how to grow equity and inclusion, while releasing what no longer serves. Worshipful activities and stories from Quaker writers and Mexican/Native traditions will nurture our exploration of these issues.
Mica Estrada

June 20-27
Quaker Service and Art Camp
Rising fifth through ninth graders learn about Quaker faith and practices, share time in nature and build community through art, service, campfires, singing, games, hikes, and more.
